22 12

This Elvis stamp is America's most popular stamp. It was issued on January 8, 1993 on what would have been Elvis's 58th birthday as part of Legends of American Music series of stamps. A total of 517 million of these stamps were produced, 3 times the normal number of a commemorative issue. The US Postal Service estimated that 124 million of these stamps will be saved. Thus, these are not rare. This must have been a fantastic financial windfall for the US Postal Service. My honest opinion for this issue is:
